Local Exchange Trading Scheme

- Helping People Help Themselves
- Building Community
- Encouraging Local Skills
- Increasing Prosperity

Falmouth LETS is run by and for local people creating wealth that stays within the area. It puts people in touch with a thriving social network and a great variety of resources & skills. Everybody has skills and someone out there needs yours!

There are Local Exchange Trading Schemes around the world. Falmouth LETS has been running since 1994, helping people to exchange goods & services with other people in the community without the need for money.

See our website for an application form and further information.
